2 The following is a transcript of a conversation
3 between DARREN REAGAN, D'ANGELO LEE and DONALD W. HILL
4 (UI) UNINTELLIGIBLE
5 (PH) PHONETIC
6 (Phone ringing)
7 D'ANGELO LEE (LEE): DARREN.
8 DARREN REAGAN (REAGAN): Hey.
9 LEE: Alright.
10 REAGAN: Y'all, y'all alright again?
11 LEE: Yeah.
12 DONALD W. HILL (HILL): Yeah. We're here, we're here.
13 REAGAN: Okay, ah, I told him that, ah, I need to
14 have contracts signed, and I would be happy to visit
15 with him this evening on, ah, on a matter, that we 16 won't discuss over the phone, as it relates to, ah, as
17 it relates to what D'ANGELO has recommended to me.
18 And that's, that's uh, hold on a second, guys.
19 (Pause)
20 REAGAN: Hello, COUNCILMAN?
21 HILL: Yeah, yeah, we're right here.
22 REAGAN: Okay, ah, but I, I, I believe he's going to move
23 on what, ah, we've asked him to do, and I gave him a good
24 lashing about leaving messages, and, and, and, uh, not
25 coming directly to me. He needed to deal directly

1 with me, and it's very disingenuous and dishonest of
2 him to, ah, do what he did. And so, people are very
3 nervous about dealing with him, period. And so, I, I
4 told him, I said, that this deal basically is gonna,
5 ah, sink or swim on his ability to get some things
6 done post-haste.

7 HILL: Well, that, that, that is, that is, that is
8 absolutely correct, that is absolutely correct, that
9 is absolutely correct.

10 REAGAN: And so, I told him that he, now, he went on and
11 told me that he sent out letters, and he got everybody
12 pre-qualified, and all that other stuff. I said, I'm 13 not interested in none of that. I'm interested in 14 signed contracts, post-haste.

15 LEE: Alright.

16 HILL: Alright, alright, that's good, that's good.

17 REAGAN: Okay, okay, and I'll, he's gonna call me back,
18 and let me know that, ah, he can come and meet me this
19 evening, and, uh, I'll call you guys back and give 20 y'all the word on that.

21 LEE: Alright.

22 REAGAN: Alright, guys.

23 HILL: (UI). Very good.

24 REAGAN: Thank you so much Commissioner.
